

Letter of Recommendation

Elevate International Management Group LLC

To whom it may concern,

When I was first introduced to Amanda Abiassi it was about five years ago when she was helping to lead the charge for a non-profit in Houston. She displayed a unique ability to garner the respect of major corporate sponsors while simultaneously building relationships with numerous professional athletes. It's not every day that professional athletes can say they truly enjoy every event they attend. Amanda has been able to achieve that by thinking outside of the box in her approach to planning each event and forming Elevate!

During her career, Amanda has made numerous important contacts throughout the country. Perhaps the most crucial was that of Neera Patidar. Neera is a very successful business woman, not only in the restaurant industry, but in many other relevant fields that give her great insight into building the strongest foundation possible for Elevate. Amanda and Neera's partnership has become the ideal blend of event planning experience and overall industry know-how. Their relationship continues to shape Elevate into a company with the potential for incredible growth.

When the opportunity presented itself to partner with Elevate, I jumped at the chance to join such an exciting young company. I knew this was a passion and dream of Amanda's to build this company from the ground up and think my experiences throughout my career can give worthwhile perspective to the project. I have no doubt with the experience and success from past events, both charitable and recreational, that Elevate will provide continued satisfaction for every future client!
